Officer James Daniel To Graduate From DCI

Juvenile Officer James H. Daniel of the Torrance Police Department will graduate tonight from University of Southern California's Delinquency Control Institute, where he received post-graduate level training in the latest methods of handling juvenile offenders.

Officer Daniel has been in his present position three-and-one-half years and with the department seven years. He is a graduate of El Camino College and has completed several FBI training courses.

GRADUATION of DCI's 35th class brings to 608 the number of graduates who have given professional service to some 1,300,000 juveniles under the age of 18 years in most of the 50 states and 22 foreign countries. Fourteen of these graduates have become chiefs of police and two are law enforcement consultants to other nations. Many others have risen in rank in their departments to assume broader administrative responsibilities.

Organized in 1946, the Institute, directed by C. Robert Guthrie, is the original specialized training program for police juvenile officers and still is the most intensive.

A special screening committee selects students from a large number of applicants with most attending on a scholarship basis. Their course includes 12 weeks of intensive training in social treatment for delinquency, police techniques, conditioning factors in juvenile delinquency, prevention techniques, legal aspects, growth and mental development of youth, techniques of learning and teaching, administration of police juvenile programs and public speaking.

Theater Bus Reserved for 'Billy Barnes'

The Torrance Recreation Department will conduct a theater bus trip on Thursday, Dec. 6, to the "Billy Barnes L.A." revue on stage at the Coronet Theatre.

The third edition of "Billy Barnes L.A." has been fashioned especially for Angelenos. It is devised to poke gentle and not-o-gentle barbs at our sometimes wacky community and its inhabitants and to give an affectionate salute or two when it fits. Most importantly, this is happy entertainment guaranteed to send you out of the theater at least a bit more cheerful than when you went in.

THE BUS will leave Torrance City Hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd., at 7:30 p.m. The cost of the trip is $4, including theater ticket, bus transportation, and trip insurance.

Reservations for the trip may be made by calling the Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-5310, Ext. 263. After the reservations are made by phone, the trip fee may be mailed or brought to the Recreation Department. Deadline for making the payment is Friday, Nov. 30. If there are still tickets after the deadline, they can be secured at the Recreation Department office.
